

Week of strikes for Northern Ireland Road, Forest and Environment Agency

Road Service, Rivers Agency, Forest Service and the Environment Agency workers will strike for seven days from Thursday.

The workers have been offered a huge real-terms pay cut – at just two per cent.

For many workers this is as little as £500 over the year.

Alan Perry, GMB Regional Organiser, said:

“These workers deserve a decent wage. But many are pennies above the minimum wage for their vital work.

“The Westminster Government needs to get serious and give them a fair pay offer.”
