

GMB response as Birmingham City Council announces job cuts consultation.

GMB Union has responded to the announcement of up to 600 job cuts.

Delcan Downes, GMB Regional Organiser, said:

“Birmingham is already slashed to the bone after years of Government austerity.

“Job cuts on this scale will see vital local services suffer even more – particularly those staffed by the women workers the council has discriminated against for decades.

“After years of ignoring rampant pay discrimination, this is a crisis of the council’s own making.

“GMB won’t stand by as working Brummies’ are expected to pay the price.”
