

Frequently Asked Questions

GMB is balloting our thousands of members across Birmingham City Council, asking if you'd be prepared to take action to end the equal pay crisis.

Get the information you need to take part below.

Last update: 11 Dec 2023

Your questions, answered...

How Will I Receive My Ballot?

Posted on: 11 December 2023

You will be emailed or texted your ballot link, depending on what information GMB holds for you.

The email will come from midland.communications@gmb.org.uk and the text will come from GMB Midlands.

When Will I Receive My Ballot?

Posted on: 11 December 2023

Ballots will go out from Tuesday 12 December.

If you don't receive yours by Thursday 14 December, please contact midland.communications@gmb.org.uk

The vote will run until Monday 15 January.

What Does This Ballot Mean?

Posted on: 11 December 2023

This is a consultative ballot.

Your union is asking you to vote YES to show you would be willing to take action if the council delay on ending the equal pay crisis.

The next step after this would be a formal industrial action ballot, which would be conducted by post in accordance with laws on trade union activity.

When Will The Ballot Close?

Posted on: 11 December 2023

The vote will run until Monday 15 January. However your union urges you to vote early and vote YES.

How Can I Find Out More?

Posted on: 11 December 2023

We will be holding two online FAQ meeting for members on Zoom.

Tuesday 12 December 6:30PM - <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89127863225>

Thursday 14 December 6:30PM - <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83051350919>

