Our Case Ref: NW14655

Dear Manjit Dale and Gary Lindsay,

We, the undersigned MPs, call on you to take action against pay discrimination in ASDA stores.

GMB union have told us that they have estimated women workers on the shop floor earn up to £3.74 per hour less than their male counterparts in warehouses. ASDA's retail workers are currently owed over £2 billion in back pay.

Over 60,000 current and former ASDA retail workers have lodged claims and with the equal value hearing underway, now is the time for ASDA to begin seriously considering how to address the issue of pay discrimination.

We believe it is simply unfair for people to be paid differently for doing work of the same value.

Everyone deserves equal pay for equal work.

As MPs with ASDA stores and workers in our constituencies, we urge you to urgently commence settlement negotiations with the GMB union.

Yours sincerely,

Nadia Whittome MP
